HAVE A BIG PULL

Something About
Tug-of-War Teams.

The tug-of-war tournament will be resumed at the Aala warehouse tonight. The first pull will be between the Portuguese and the All-Americans, and the second between the Public Works and Lumber Yard teams. The last three teams are making their first appearance tonight.

The feature of Saturday's pulls was the stand made by the Portuguese team. The Pacific Hardware Co.'s aggregation were expected to pull the Manuela over in short order, but it took them just twenty-four minutes to do it. The Hardware team are a likely looking crowd, but certainly did not handle themselves to the best advantage last Saturday. The Portuguese knew that their only chance lay in hanging on, and hang on they certainly did, some of them even digging their teeth into the cleats, and when they were finally overhauled, a great splinter of wood was held in more than one month.

The Kani Ke Aus, who defeated the Longshoremen, displayed the best form of the evening. Their opponents were handicapped by being practically minus an anchor, their star end man, Keola, having gone into the camp of the lumbermen.

The pull tonight between the Portuguese and the All-Americans should be won by the latter in about twenty minutes. The Public Works and Lumbermen should furnish one of the best pulls of the tournament, both teams being cracking good ones. The former combination is mainly made up of old Wela Ka Hao pullers and they will go into the battle confident of victory. This team is said to be a shade stronger than the Kani Ke Aus.

Of the Lumber Yard team but little is known, but it seems to have a host of admirers around town who refuse to entertain the possibility of defeat. Taking a line through the Kani Ke Aus' performance last Saturday, the Public Works team should have the best of a long pull.

There is some talk of an inter-island tug-of-war tournament to take place here on June 11th, when the victorious team in the present contests will be pitted against the strong men of the other islands.

The receipts of last Saturday's show were in the neighborhood of $300.

A movement is on foot to recompense the members of the teams for every time they pull. According to present arrangements, the only prizes in sight are the $200 and $50 offered the two teams which rank highest at the close of the tournament. The balance, and it should be a fat one, goes to the Honolulu Athletic Club.

It certainly seems manifestly unfair that the bulk of the men who are to furnish the sport should receive nothing at all for their pains. Only two teams can win the prize money, which means $250 divided up among perhaps two dozen men. The remaining sixty men, including substitutes, who have gone through the contests, the majority with no earthly show of winning first or second prize, get soup.

Every man who by pulling on a team helps to draw a crowd to Aala warehouse, is entitled to a day's wages at the very least. The tournament is to last a month and it costs both money and time to keep in condition and attend practices.

Also the sport is by no means a mild one and the risk of rupture not inconsiderable, and a bursted blood vessel may mean empty mouths at home for many a day. For which reasons it is small wonder that the majority of the members of the teams are asking one another where they come in and are clamoring for an arrangement whereby they will receive something more substantial for their pains than the empty plaudits of an amused multitude.

BASEBALL LEAGUE HAS A MEETING

A meeting of the Honolulu Baseball League was held at noon yesterday, the following clubs being represented:

Honolulu Athletic Club, by P. Gleason and J. Wise; Maile-Hillmas, by C. Taylor and Geo. Lucas; Kamehamehas, by Treadway and Kokoi; and the Custom House, by Scanlon.

President Chillingworth took the chair and Lorin Andrews the notes.

The offer of the use of the Punahou grounds by Oahu College was accepted and J. C. Cohen tendered a vote of thanks for his work in this connection.

It was decided that the manager of the league should be an ex-officio officer of that body, as well as the president and secretary.

J. C. Cohen was elected manager of the league. His principal duties will consist in attending to the collection of gate receipts. In this work he will be assisted by the managers of the various clubs, and representatives of the McKinley memorial finance committee and the Oahu College Athletic Association.

The first game of the league will be played next Saturday between the Honolulu and Artillery.

TO BID FOR FIGHT.

The Honolulu Athletic Club and Joe Cohen are on the trail.

It was said last night that the Honolulu Athletic Club intended bidding for the Weeday-Agnew contest. Joe Cohen is also reported to be making goo-goo eyes at the boxers.

It is understood that Cohen will do business on the terms of 40 per cent of the house for Joe and 60 per cent for the fighters. Weeday hugs the opinion that 20 per cent is enough for any old fight promoter.
